uted by Dr. Charles G. Herber- ing I many assistants, ranging from New Mexico to Philip," is at hand and or more volumes will complete the As it has progressed its usefuland remarkable impartiality have seted more and more attention. ount of miscellaneous matter but twelve rang like a trumper call to victory. d ecclesiastical questions.

Catholic press throughout the world in the article "Periodicals." Of general the very beautiful Felicity, the good look-interest are the careful summaries of "Numismatics." the "Organ." "Painting" roguish Peter.

corleans." "New York." "Philadelphia" and 'Paris." on "Oxford." which includes a full statement of the Oxford movement; on "Nicza." with its councils and the creed formulated there, on Nimes and Orange, with their antiquities.

Among the biographies those of St. Peter and of St. Paul stand out naturally, there is a very complete account of St. Patrick. The Popes who come in the alphabetical order are Pelagius, Nicholas. Paul and Paschal, with the many saints of those names; other notable biographies are those of Origen. Pascal and of the Orsini family, who fought with the Colonnas for the control of Rome. The articles on religions and beliefs which are not Catholic are handled with con.

The book is written in the simplest.

The delinquent border are grandfather of some of them, and a delightful, home-like oid place it was. Every tree, every spot on it had some legend or bit of family history connected with it; all the fruit rees, for example, were birthday trees planted upon the arrival of each child or grandchild and known each tree by the person it commemorated. It was the custom in the King family to discuss every year the flavor and the quality of Aunt Felicity's pears. Aunt Julia's cherries and the Rev. Mr. Scott's plums.

A fine, quiet and old faschioned family the Kings. There was the King complexion and the King nose, by which the members of the family might be known. As a family they were a unit, and a fine type of the old, blood united folk with whom to be kin really meant something.

The book is written in the grandfather of some of them, and a delightful, home-like of place it was. Every tree, every spot on it had some legend or bit of family history connected with it; all the fruit frees, for example, were birthday trees planted upon the arrival of each child or grandchild and known each tree by Herry Sydnor Harrison (Houghton Mifflin Company), there is a voung man whose cosmos is all ego. So the family might be kings of the control of Rome. The members of the family they were a unit. The delinque first three parts, about half of the book consist of metrical translations of early A MAN AND A WOMAN BURGLAR chapter heading, "Altruism," in Queed's and classical Japanese poems and of some lyrical dramas, first published thirty years are and long out of print Surprises in "The Catspay." thirty years ago and long out of print, the fourth part, which deals with the days and the sexplained of the Astatic Sequer of days were in commentative promise in the most lilly minutive article for highly starting models were within the reaches a curious interest in Comments of all the work of the starting and the starting of the starting of the Security of th

Adventures of an Englishman Who Was in a Romance in Russia. s a long, venturesome, but far from tedious excursion that the reader of Arthur W. Marchmont's "The Little Anarchist" (Dodge Publishing Company) takes o the realm of the improbable. Of wirse there is a little anarchist, and ventures of the polyglot Englishman, hose powers of disguise surpass anything that Sherlock Holmes ever dreamt pathy from beginning to end. f and who finds himself in all sorts of tight corners because, to oblige a cousin he has attempted to escort the cousin's ancée from Russia to England despite the opposition of her relatives and a very villainous suitor.

ot in the town of Minsk, where the scene not much bothered with long speeches on their rights or wrongs. The particular spring water. When you have the front self-sacrifice is so strongly formed that section in control was contantly throwing, and the author was bent on telling a story and not preaching a sermon

"THE STORY GIRL."

Their Oun.

A book has been put forth by L. C. Page who combines the insolence of the & Co. of Boston this summer that every man officer with the villainy of the one who likes boys and girls should get man mafia, because he has abducted hold of and read. "The Story Girl," by mistake. The men show as little L. M. Monigomery, has for its characters as the women and the occasional two or three boys of 13 or so and a at humor are painful. Frequent couple of girls of 12-no, three girls, one ases in foreign tongues serve to show of them the Story Girl, who the readers are has the author is unfamiliar with them all. | told at the outset of the tale, was not hand some but had a wonderful voice, a voice of magical intonations. All the younggras XI. of "The Catholic Encyclo. sters were surprised when Mr. Campbell (E-bert Appleton Company, New | said suddenly to her and apropos of noth-

Recite the multiplication table for me." She did. As she announced it "the fact that three times three was nine was exquisitely ridiculous, five times six almost brought tears to our eyes, eight times seven was the most tragic and frightful only in the handling of the great thing ever heard of and twelve times rticularly in the treatment of religious lt was this marvellous voice, joined to a gift for telling stories unusual even in a In the volume before us attention is child, that got Sara Stanley the name of awn to the very full account of the the Story Girl. But her playmates are and "Paleography." Among the geo-graphical articles we note those on "New Orleans." "New York." "Philadelphia" and farm that had belonged to the grandfather articles on religions and beliefs which are not Catholic are handled with conspicuous fairness; this volume deals among others with the Nonconformists and Old Catholics, with "Occultism," "Paganism" and "Pantheism."

On matters relating to church discipline, to theology and to organization we may call attention to the elaborate articles on "Patron Saints" and of "Holy Orders"; the Oratorians and the Passionists come in this volume; so does the discussion of the Rentateuch, of the Parables, of Oaths and of Penance. "Novena," "Novice," "Nuncio," "Nunci

surprises in "The Catspan."

"The Catspaw," by William Hamilton calls the epigram, is reprinted from the proceedings of the Asiatic Society of to clean un $1.000,000 in a little town near proceedings of the Asiatic Society of to clean up $1.000,000 in a little town near social welfare of nations, he'd better rub this poem is the most illuminative article. During the day they attend tess and to richest girl in town

"TORCHY" TELLS ABOUT IT. Sewell Ford's New Book a Mixture of they give him the nickname "Bawbee Jock." Slang and Humor.

"Torchy," by Sewell Ford (Edward J. Clode), is a mixture of slang and humor coming from the lips of the young philosopher whose red head gives him the moira, his dearly loved home, to strangers. the interest of the story lies in the adery villainous suitor.

That the anarchists are a very busy As office boy for the Corrugated Trust

So far "Jock" has been able to pay Abster's debts without selling the old to push through the plate glass you see the first. If I likes your looks and your he does not dream of asking her to be spring water. When you have the front to push through the plate glass you see most of memory and not preaching a sermon The love tale that supplied the real naive for the book does not drag for a moment, and the heroine is an able assistant in time of stress for the ingenia class of the scapes for the leading characters. And yet the mental attitude of the treatier will generally be expressed as a clerk in the office, and how at least any put it when his friend the anarchistic grant gave entiment after having the doctrical. That's all right for talk, but I don't have been a formed to the scapes of the scape of

Eleventh American Edition in Press

The Broad Highway By JEFFERY FARNOL

Not only the year's biggest success, but it gives every indication of taking its place among those few novels that, by reason of their universal appeal. achieve permanence beyond their day and generation.

We might quote columns of favorable reviews, by the most discriminating English and American critics, but instead we invite you to ascertain the opinion of anyone who has read the book.

THE BROAD HIGHWAY is a long book of 582 pages that seems all too short. $1.35 net, by mail $1.46.

Published by LITTLE, BROWN & CO., Boston -- At all Booksellers

Penal Laws against Catholics are excellent and those in colors in good taste. The Encyclopedia maintains its high standard and, valuable as it is for all Catholics, is particularly instructive for those of other faiths.

Other Books.

Prof. Basil Hall Chamberlain, now emeritus, the man who beefriended Lafcadio Hearn in Japan, has put together an extremely interesting volume which will be new to most readers, in "Japanese Poetry" John Murray, London. The First three parts, about half of the book, and the constant plight of many grown folk.

"Sar is a nice girl. She's only 11 and her mother is dreadfully strict. She's only 11 and her mother is dreadfully strict. She is surgle story, Just you fancy Sara's conscience always troubling her for doing things she's sure her mother won't approve, but it never prevents her from doing things she's sure her mother won't approve, but it never prevents her from doing things she's sure her mother won't approve, but it never prevents her from doing things she's sure her mother won't approve, but it never prevents her from doing things she's sure her mother won't approve, but it never prevents her from doing things she's sure her mother won't approve, but it never prevents her from doing things she's sure her mother won't approve, but it never prevents her from doing things she's sure her mother won't approve, but it never prevents her from doing things she's sure her mother won't approve, but it never prevents her from doing things she's sure her mother won't approve, but it never prevents her from doing things she's sure her mother won't approve, but it never prevents her from doing things she's sure her mother won't approve, but it never prevents her from doing things she's sure her mother won't approve. Such humor filis the pages But hall Chamberlain, now emeritus, the man who beefriended Laf-cadio Hearn in Japan, has put together all the story to the gray she will have a prevent with the work hand in the mother of the book. Such humor filis the pages But hall chamberlain ha doing algebra in the dining room, sees a istic. Queed is fired from the Post because his poverished head of a Scottish clan. The other guests at this house party rather look down upon "Jock," otherwise John Murdock MacKenzie, for having rented Through Maine and the White Mountains. Helen having rented the iman. French and Company.)

"Luis and Sonnets." Louis How. (Sherman. Half a Man. The Status of the Negro in New York." Mary White Ovington. Foreword by Dr. Franz Boaz. (Longmans, Green and Company.) his ancestral home to strangers for the sake of a few extra "bawbees"; hence

Angela becomes interested in "Jock." She thinks there must be some reason pathy from beginning to end.

His quick wit in saving many delicate situations evokes admiration and his colossal cheek seems equivalent to high courage, considering that this waif, a double orphan, as he dubs himself, is climbing the ladder of success unaided.

So far "Jock" has been all.

family, who was his mother's idol, although he broke her heart. On her deathbed the mother had left Alister as a charge to "Jock," bidding him shield his young brother even if he had to sacrifice Glenmoira.

So far "Jock" has been all.

of in the town of Minsk, where the scene laid is made plain; but the reader is the control of the corrugated that is made plain; but the reader is the control of the contr "I'm behind the brass rail, next to the never fails to shield his brother, and when

Master Christopher

MRS. HENRY DE LA PASTURE

(LADY CLIFFORD

Author of Peter's Mother, The Lonely Lady of Grosvenor Square, Etc.

Like Mrs. de la Pasture's previous stories. Master Christopher is an authoritative and delightful study of the manners of modern English society, but the present novel is also much more. The headstrong, spoiled boy, his parasitic friends, the resolute beauty and the two charmingly depicted gentlewomen of the story make up a gallery of portraits unequalled in the fiction of the year.

Price 1.35 Net

E. P. DUTTON & CO., 31 West 23rd St., New York

. . . One of the most valuable chapters relates to the discipline of the bar."

Nation: - "The style of narrative, the conciseness of statement and the wealth of allusion make this book one which certainly the lawyer, and probably many laymen, will wish to finish at one sitting and not burriedly. . . . We hope to

Henry Holt and Company, 34 W. 33d St., New York

for his course or he would never let Glen- Take Miss Dewing's novel of life as viewed from an office boy's poverished through the wrongdoing of a away with you when you

A BIG HORSE TO RIDE

By E. B. DEWING. Cloth, 12mo, $1.50

Miss Dewing's new novel, "A Big Horse to Ride," is really the story of Rose Carson, dancer.

The Boston Transcript says:

Rose Carson bids fair to become immortal. . . .

From her early childhood hours until she almost reaches the age of thirty she discloses to us her mind and her heart. . . . She is a woman such as few novel writers are able to create, and she is a woman who is bound to take a leading place in English fiction. She and her story possess distinction of a rare kindthe distinction of imaginative reality that impresses the reader with its truth."

By the author of " Other People's Houses." Cloth, $1.50

Published

THE MACMILLAN COMPANY For Sale by all Hooksellers.

New Scribner Novels HARPER

The Price

By Francis Lynde,

Miss

Gibbie

Gault

By Kate Langley Bosher

"The Taming of Red Butte $1.30 net; postpaid $1.49

"The heroine is not merely cashing. 'beautiful,' 'charming.' She is entitled to all the stereoty ped adjectives, but her great merit is that sh., too, is real, a living human being "- New York Tribune.

teing"—New York Tribune.
"The story cartures attention by storm and holds it by fore, it is daringly original and bewilderingly rapid."—The N. V. World.

The Patrician By John Galsworthy.

$1.35 net; postpaid $1.45 The book of the season is undoubtedly John Galsworthy's 'The Patrician'.' New York Evening

Brazenhead the Great By Maurice Hewlett.

"All the swashbucklers, soldiers of fortune, and heroes of romance ever seen or imagined have gone to the making of him; and he stands out as their epitome and type.'

Robert Kimberly By Frank Spearman,

$1.30 ret; postpaid $1.45 "Ouite the best Mr. Spearman has written. A strong, original re-mance." Transcript.

> Esther Damon By Mrs. Fremont Older.

$1.25 net; postpaid $1.35 The moving study of the bringing together of a man and woman of them outcasts from society.

Jane Oglander By Mrs. Belloc Lowndes. $1:25 net; postpaid $1.35

"You may think that Athena was time. I dety you not to read it if you once begin it."—Miss Gilder in Chicago Tribuae."

Brother Copas By Arthur Quiller-Couch. $1.20 net; postpaid $1.30

"Assuredly, Brother Copas' is an event, the best study of whimsical personality since Locke's Beloved Vagabond'.' Philadel-

Master and Maid By L. Allen Harker,

$1.25 net: postpaid $1.37

"A pure, sweet and picturesque romance, in which the characters are both lovable and amusing."

The Camera Fiend By E. W. Hornung. $1.20 net: postpaid $1.30

The mysterious disappearance of phy with its glancing humor."
Tony Upton, schoolboy, and a succession of deaths by violence in or — Chicago Evening Post. near Hyde Park at daybreak the e are the elements which bewilder the police at the opening of "The Camera Fiend," a detective story based upon psychical research.

An Old Maid's Venge ince By Frances Powell. $1.25 net: postpaid $1. 5

A baftling story of love, mystery

Books Educate the Family

Real Book Bargains at Greatly Reduced Prices. Suitable for every member of the Household. New stock constantly

CATALOGUE FREE UPON REQUEST

Safe delivery guaranteed throughout the World.

BRENTANO'S 5 A. . . 27 5

The News

and Reviews of Books will be printed in

THE SUN

ofFridays until . further notice.

added. Quantities limited.

Charles Scribner's Sons.

153-7 ith Avenue New York.

Essence of

By H. Perry Robinson

Everybody who has ever indulged in a honeymoon will laugh over the delicious humor of the situations, and everybody who hasn't been honeymooning would better steer clear of the book altogether -- it is too fine, too dainty for the uninitiated.

Harper's Camping and Scouting

How to prepare for camp, choose a site; how to cook and look out for yourself generally is one part of this big new book. Other chapters show the work of the organized camps. Boy Scouting is fully covered for American boys, with lessons in woodcraft and scouting games. Mountain climbing and caravaning make another interesting section. The book is edited by experts-George Bird Grinnell, editor of Forest and Stream; Dr. Eugene L. Swan, director Pine Island Camp; Garrett P. Serviss, the astronomer.

HARPERS HARPERS HARPERS MAGAZINE BAZAR WEEKLY

"Like MARY CARY, this book stands for the winning power of love," was said this week about Mrs. Bosher's new novel-a tribute indeed. "To read a book like this is like taking a sun bath," chuckles the Boston Herald. "This novel is of such pure gold quality that it recalls the best tales that Miss Alcott has left us to make the world better," is a Western opinion, while this is from New York: "The youthful heroine (Mary Cary) has a way with her which is not less taking in these fresh chapters than it was in the earlier book:" Mrs. Maxon

By Anthony Hope

Protests

The verdict is-and it was published less than' five weeks ago-a really brilliant novel-The New York World found "the rapid movement which arouses and maintains living interest." The Herald declares it "full of shrewd but tolerant observation and of the crisp dialogue for which Anthony Hope is famous." A Southerner says: "Its satire and humor are abundant," and from Philadelphia comes this: "As in the Dolly Dialogues, brilliant conversation predominates."

Keeping Up With Lizzie By Irbing Bacheller

"Better than a barrel of sermons."- Washington Star. "There is profound philoso-

"Nine-tenths of the world will like it." - The Belman, Minneapolis. "Irving Bacheller never wrote a jollier or a truer story than the shrewd commentary on human nature and American life called 'Keeping Up With Lizzie." - Deiroit Journal.

Honeymoon